Fundraising for change: Shreeya's journey to changemaking

When she is not diligently preparing for a Geography Bee or analytically collaborating with her Robotics team, you can find Shreeya fundraising for children's and women's rights in rural India.

MY THOUGHTS ABOUT BH BEFORE ATTENDING

- Despised the thought of business
- Got mad at my mom for pushing me to apply
- Didn't even want to think of having to do anything business related

WHILE ATTENDING BH

- Tiring but extremely fun
- Amazing people around me - new friends, networking opportunities
- Activities that made me enjoy learning about how business works

AVATALK

- App / website to connect youth to safe mental health support
- Different subscriptions with different options
- Completely anonymous
- Troll free due to advanced AI tech and human moderators
- Users can get access to communication with others users, teachers, parents, and even therapists depending on who they want to talk to
- Short questionnaire to match users with 2-3 people with the same problems so that they can freely talk to each other

AFTER ATTENDING BH

- More open to discussing about business
- Networking with the industry experts and peers
- Ambassador Program & ABI Youth Board member
- Thought of how to incorporate what I learned in my other activities
 - Networking
 - Marketing
